Mr. E. Manley
101 Montgomery Street
Newark, N.J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

In answer to your letter of May 26, please be advised that for the time being I think it best for umpire Turner to work on the individual game basis. It is more advantageous for us to go along with this arrangement for the time being, and then if necessary, place him on salary at some future date.

It is perfectly O.K. to use him regularly on the per game basis, and at the same time we can alternate him between Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore.

Would it be possible for you to contact Turner and have him make an appointment to see me personally in Philadelphia? I'd like to talk things over with him and make arrangements whereby I could keep in touch with him for assignments. During this discussion I'll also decide whether to put him on salary or work along the way he is now, depending, of course, on what is best for the League.

Therefore, keep him on the per game arrangement for the present time and have him see me in the very near future.

May 27, 1939.

I will take care of the correspondence you received from the Douglas Hotel. I'll get in touch with them as well as McCrary and arrange for some plan to adjust this matter. The only thing they can do regarding Craig is go after him directly, because he's no longer connected with the League and we can't be held responsible for past obligations.

Too bad we'll have to buck the Brooklyn-Giants doubleheader on July 2, but there is nothing we can do about this.

I will take care of the Negro National League owners on Yankee Stadium promotions by sending them tickets. Let me know how many you'll need for June 4, so I can forward the tickets to you sometime next week.

I can't understand how the mistake in standings came about in the Courier. I sent Cum Posey a complete listing of the results of games starting with Sat., May 13 to Sun., May 21, inclusive, and he was supposed to forward this data to the respective newspapers.

According to my records, below should be the correct standings including the games played within the above period.

	W.	L.
N.Y. Black Yanks	4	1
Newark Eagles	4	1
Homestead Grays	3	1
Phila. Stars	4	4
Cuban Stars	0	1
Toledo Crawfords	0	3
Baltimore Elite Gts.	0	4

These represent the standings, along with the results of the individual games, which I sent to Posey for the papers. If this does not agree with your records, advise at once so I can check where the mistake occurred.

Regarding Secretary's salary and Phila. Stars dues, I will follow your suggested procedure. In other words, I'll send you the dues for the Philly Stars in the regular course of events, and you send me the salary specified for the secretary. I think it is best to handle this separately.

Let me hear from you about the above matters and any other developments. Best regards.

Sincerely,

EG:MBW
